Bookstores

There isn't a dedicated SF&F bookstore in Glasgow any more. However, the following have good collections of current genre books.

Waterstones

Waterstones is arguably the best-known bookshop chain in the UK. There are three branches of Waterstones in Glasgow - on Sauchiehall Street, on Argyle Street, and on Byres Road. Please note that though their shelves are usually very well stocked, they do trade principally in new, backlist and current books by well-established/big-name authors. It is also worth mentioning that while there is normally some kind of 'buy one get one free/half price' deal going on, the vast majority of the books on sale are at full price.

Games and Comics
